

lymphomaniacs

a group of young adults that are just crazy about Lymphoma... or was that Lymphoma is making them crazy?

This group has been started with the intent to connect young adults with Lymphoma. This will happen locally though quarterly socials, and on the web by offering a venue for people to connect.

The goal is for one Lymphomaniac to find another in this big cancer world.

Sept 2nd 2010 at 6:30-8:30pm

Lymphomaniacs 3rd quarter social at The ARC - 140 Slater St - Upper Lobby

come & meet other Lymphomaniacs at various stages of treatment & recovery over coffee. cocktails & hors d'œuvres to order

Note: This social is for your support, partner, family & best-friend also; wouldn't they love to connect with their contemporary too?

sign up for information as this group develops and updates about our first social at:

lymphomaniacs@gmail.com

hosted by: Tamara Deswart – Lymphomaniac
co-hosts: Vanessa Peck - Lymphomaniacs

What is a Lymphomaniac?

Lymph – a fluid that moves through the nodes by filtration carrying out the waste

Maniac – a person who has an obsession & excessive enthusiasm for something

Lymphomaniac – a person who is obsessed with their nodes but likes to move through the waste and get fluid

What do Lymphomaniacs do?

Lymphomaniacs are interested in socializing and offering the type of social support that only one Lymphomaniac can give another through shared experiences.

street parking free after 5pm

Come hear all about the exciting lymphoma events for young adults coming up in the Fall 2010